

1 marks, saying that he was making suggestions of things
2 that were of concern throughout the State about possible
3 need for constitutional restriction. He did not himself
4 advocate the things you attribute to him.

5 MR. RAVER: Mr. Bond says it is under consider-6 ation.

7 MR. BOND: It is under active consideration as 8 to whether the governor should have a cabinet answerable
9 to him.

10 DR. JENKINS: It didn't yet come to the Com-
11 mission.

12 MR. BOND: No, not yet.

13 MR. RAVER: This would be equally as horrifying,
14 I would say, as removal of public education in 52.

15 MR. BOND: That is all I want to hear.

16 MR. RAVER: I didn't come here with statistics, 17 but I would urge your Committee to study the results in 18 how education works in the States where the State superin-
19 tendent is appointed by the governor, and you will find,
20 sir, that he spends more of his time campaigning for re-
21 appointment and politicking than he does running the
